NO. 27

DONE BY HIS SONS.

Anderson's Boys Killed Him.

Heartless Criminals Voluntarily Confess.

At Grove, Mo., May 25.—A sensation was created here when Ewing Sanders, Ed and Henry Anderson, the last pair sons of Swain Anderson, a wealthy farmer and mason, were arrested charged with the killing of their father, and a still greater sensation when it was announced that three had made confessions leading to the crime.

NO SANDERS' CONFESSION.

Ewing Sanders told the full story of the commission of the crime as "The plan was laid about two months ago. Ed came to where I work in the field and proposed that I help him kill the old man. I didn't like it, but after a while he kept persuading me and I finally yielded. Ed had laid a plan to kill him before when he went to the cattle by knocking the old man over the head with an axe and then the wagon run over him, but the little boys was along with him. He told me about two or three weeks ago and since then the plan was perfected. Ed begged until I didn't know what to do. It was my gun, a muzzle loader. I got the ammunition Wednesday night. The plan was to have Fred Archer stay all night to keep suspicion.

THE CRIME WAS COMMITTED.

The gun about 300 yards where he was shot and we got at 12 o'clock at night and waited. He came along between 11 and 12, walking fast, all unconscious. Ed lifted the gun and fired and he dropped and uttered and instantly expired. We got up to the body but ran home to Mr. Cox's and put away and went to the kitchen to get something to eat and went to bed.

MURDER OF THE MURDERER.

"God, what have I done! O, Ed and Henry, you have got to this! O, horrible, horrible! I were to pay me $50 and give work as long as I wanted it. Old lady and Jennie didn't know of it. O, Ed, Ed, why did you persuade me to go into it, and to think any poor old mother would better. It will kill her. O, God."

THE PATRICIDES VERY COOL.

Ed and Henry Anderson, when questioned, said: "We worked it together how to kill father the time and failed. The last plan was successful. W. S. Campbell who worked for us, first put it in our minds, and who got mad at our father about one year ago, and said he would be in the field that it would be something that the old tool was meaning father. We began to talk about it from that time. Others put it also in our minds, among whom were Joe Lee and the Byers. Joe told me if it was in our place that father would be a dead man in less than twenty-four hours.

ALL BLAMED UPON OTHERS.

It had not been for them this murder would never have happened. It has worked on our minds. Was to do the shooting, as Henry said he would not help shoot him. But three or four years ago, on a morning, father and Ed had a double about Mr. Archer's horses. He had come to our house. Father had up a rail and made for Ed and he would knock Ed's brains out. That was the beginning of our trouble, and has worked on us and has got worse and worse, until we planned to kill him. He always worked against our going to church and school and that worked on us.

DONE IN A WORKED UP PASSION.

"We never really thought about what would follow after the killing. We did it in a worked up passion. We shot him with a musket and shotgun. We got scared and run and got separated, but finally got together and direct to Mr. Cox's. Father came ambling to me and we shot and nearly missed him."

There arose a dispute between Ed and Ewing Sanders as to who did the shooting. Ed said Ewing did the killing and Ewing denied it, but the weight of evidence is that Ed did the shooting.

MUCH TALK OF A LYNCHING.

There is strong talk of lynching to night.

The young men say that the rest of the family knew nothing about it. Ewing loaded the gun with turkey shot and three buck shot.

The investigation will be continued to morrow and new developments may be brought out. There is intense excitement in town.

The three prisoners were taken to Springfield for safe keeping. Ewing Sanders' mother, seventy odd years old, is now in hysterics.

Hudson Items.

Mr. Editor:—Once more, after a rest of several weeks, we take up our pencil to scribble down a few items.

Mr. John Clark and family have gone to Eldorado Springs. They went to see if Mr. C.'s health could be restored.

Miss Mollie Steele, one of Henry county's fair ladies, who has been visiting at Judge Steele's, has returned home.

The democratic convention Saturday week elected Judge F. M. Steele township committeeman for the next two years.

Mr. Clifford Page has returned from his trip to Dakota Ty. He is not as well pleased with the country as he expected.

Quite a number of the young folks of this community enjoyed themselves on the banks of Horseshoe Lake, near Rockville. The company consisted of Misses Florence Page, Miller, Williams, McClain, Miller, Elliott, Tennie and Mattie Sharp; Messrs. F. R. and Ira Sharp, Clifford and Herbert Page.

The singing given by Mr. Oscar Honsley and his sister, Miss Ada, was an enjoyable affair for those who like to sing and hear singing.

Mr. Bruce Steele says he has new potatoes large enough to eat.

Messrs. Bailey & Griggs sold their fat cattle at $5.00 per hundred and their hogs at $3.40 per hundred. They had as fine a lot of cattle as was fed in the county.

JOE SCHOONOVER.

Blood Poison.

Three years ago I contracted blood poison. I took mercury and potash for six months without any benefit. I then took Swift's Specific, and it soon drove away every symptom of the disease. I recommend S. S. S. on every occasion, as it is really a boon to humanity, and every one suffering with blood poison can take it with great confidence.

Eczema.

I have had salt rheum for a long time, and have suffered much from the effects of the mercury which I have taken for its relief. I have traveled all over the United States and Europe, and have never found anything to benefit me as S. S. S. has done. My rheumatism is all gone, and my salt rheum is nearly so. I was also affected with malaria, and S. S. S. has relieved me of it, after having tried quinine and everything else I could hear of with no permanent benefit.

PRESIDENT'S WEDDING DAY SET.

Formal Announcement of the Approaching Union.

The White House to be the Scene of the Ceremony.

Washington, D. C., May 28.—President Cleveland will be married at the White house on Wednesday evening, June 2, to Miss Frances Folsom. The recent death of a relative of Miss Folsom has changed the original plans for the wedding and the invitations will now be limited to a few of the near relatives and members of the cabinet and their wives. Rev. Dr. Sunderland of the First Presbyterian church of Washington will officiate.

The ceremony will be followed by a collation, and the wedding in all of its details will be plain and unostentatious.

ANNOUNCED BY BULLETIN.

To night the bulletin announcing the approaching marriage was conspicuously posted at the west portal of the White house and in consequence citizens, senators, members and public officers are delighted.

The tidings spread rapidly and even the messenger boys of the several telegraph companies paused long enough to apprise passers-by that the bulletin of announcement had been publicly posted.

The Rev. Dr. Sunderland is an old friend of the Cleveland family and a pupil contemporary of the president's father. This fact, in addition to that of the president's worship at Dr. Sunderland's church on Four-and-a-half street, fully accounts for the preference shown him over other divines in performing the marriage ceremonies.

NO BRIDAL TOUR TO BE MADE.

The knot will be tied about five in the afternoon in the executive mansion and after an ample collation the evening will be passed in an old fashioned social converse of the few invited guests. The president will go to New York on Sunday to participate in the Decoration day ceremonies there and in Brooklyn on Monday and will return to Washington Tuesday accompanied by Miss Folsom and some of the invited guests.

It is not expected that the president and his bride will make a bridal tour. They will remain at the executive mansion for a while, he attending to his business and his wife devoting her time to fitting up and furnishing the new home at Tenaleytown, recently purchased by the president, which will probably be ready within a month and will then be occupied as a summer residence. There will be no fuss and feathers at the wedding or on the wedding day—Jeffersonian simplicity will predominate throughout.

Cleanliness and Godliness go hand in hand, The preacher, to promote it, gave this command: Go into every household where raiment is unclean And tell them the merits of WATER QUEEN.
